Who are Returners?

Legal returners are experienced professionals re-entering the legal field after a career break, often taken for family, caregiving, or personal reasons.

Our Returners are highly skilled lawyers, trained by top-tier law firms and in-house teams, who bring exceptional experience and renewed motivation to their careers.

Returner programmes are instrumental in helping these professionals bridge perceived gaps, regain confidence, and update their knowledge, transforming career breaks into a positive benefit for businesses seeking legal support.

Practical work experience:

Work placements for up to 6 months supported by the Obelisk team.

Comprehensive support:

Tailored mentoring, coaching, webinars and access to legal expertise.

Community:

Peer support groups and professional networking to expand participants' and clients' connections.
